The Dragon Princess

E. D. Baker

The acclaimed childrens' author twists more fairytale conventions with the sixth book in the Tales of the Frog Princess series.

Meet Millie, the charming but somewhat cursed daughter of Princess Emma and Prince Eadric. Every time Millie gets mad she turns into a dragon, and not a cute little pink dragon either. She is a full-on, green-scaled, huge-winged, fire-breathing dragon – big enough to scare the petticoats off her own friends, family ...and of course, potential suitors.

E. D. Baker proves as winning a storyteller as ever as she introduces readers to a new generation of Greater Greensward's enchanting royal family.

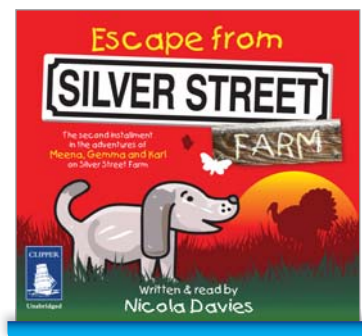

Narrator: Katherine Kellgren ISBN: 978-1-40747-246-1 Duration: 4.75hrs

It's busy at Silver Street Farm – the three kids are getting ready for the official open day and it seems like everything is going to plan! But then the star attraction – the turkeys – escape and Bobo and Bitzi, the Silver Street sheep, go missing. It takes a lot of detective work but the children eventually find the culprits – two very surprising turkey rustlers indeed!

Jason Wallace

Winner of the 2010 Costa Children's Book Award
